

Broadmeadow Mine Staff want to bargain collectively

It's not much to ask.

In 2010 Fair Work Australia ruled that a majority of Broadmeadow Mine Staff want to bargain for an enterprise agreement.

Following that ruling, Broadmeadow has to bargain in good faith with APESMA.

BHP has signed the UN Global Compact, committing itself to abide by Principle 3 which says, "Business should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining".

BUT AFTER 12 MONTHS, BMA REFUSES TO AGREE TO ENTER INTO AN ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT.

What do we want?

- An Enterprise Agreement with fair conditions
- Guaranteed minimum annual pay increases for all
- Standard, understood individual contracts for all
